It's not often a house manages to be cool and cosy at the same time, but this delightful country house hits the target! Close to the friendly village of Valle de Abdalajis, famous for its Romeria, and just 15 minutes drive from El Chorro and the famous Caminito del Rey, you could not wish for a more beautiful location. Set in 14,500m² of land with around 120 productive Olive trees, more than enough to keep you in top quality oil all year. It enjoys the most inspirational views you could wish for, sit on your main terrace and watch the vulture eagles, owls and other wildlife, including mountain goats and deer,...(Ask for More Details!)
